DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “said spur cylinder and having a plurality of spur needles” as been claimed in claim 17, line 5; and “at least one deflector on said spur cylinder and having a deflector strip” as been claimed in claim 17, line 8 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 17, 19, 20, 22, 23, 25-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jackson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,843,763) in view of Gotou et al. (U.S. Patent No. 4,790,804).

Jackson discloses the claimed folding apparatus as disclosed in Fig. 2 except of the deflector on spur cylinder, the means for moving the deflector to cover the spur needles, nor moving the deflector strip from retracted position during passage of the spur strip through the gap to an extended position covering the spur needles. However, Gotou discloses a similar apparatus comprising the teaching of using deflector extends radially outwardly beyond the cylinder and means of moving the deflector to cover the spur needles, and moving the deflector strip from retracted position during passage of the spur strip through the gap to an extended position covering the spur needles as shown in Figs. 3, 4, and 6; via 17 covering the holding pawl 12.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Jackson's folding apparatus by using a deflector, as suggested by Gotou, in order to cover blade 12 as shown in Fig. 6.

Art Unit: 3721

Regarding claim 20: Gotou discloses that the cylinder has an axis of rotation and the deflector 17 extends parallel to the axis of rotation via the thickness of the deflector is parallel to the axis of rotation of the cylinder.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Jackson's folding apparatus by using a deflector parallel to the axis of rotation of the cylinder, as suggested by Gotou, in order to cover blade 12 as shown in Fig. 6.

Regarding claim 26: Jackson in view of Gotou do not discloses the deflector discloses an incline face. However, since Gotou discloses a deflector via 17 extended radially from a shell face of eh cylinder.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Jackson in view of Gotou's folding apparatus by using a deflector extended radially from a shell face of the cylinder as a matter of engineering design choice, in order cover the gap and the folding strip.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17, 19, 20, 22, 23, 25-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3721

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
